

IN MEMORY

MICHAEL LANCE LIGGETT

1956 — 2014

Colorado's tight-knit circle of community bankers was saddened by the passing of Michael "Mike" Liggett on September 28, 2014. Mike was both well-known and well-liked as a fourth-generation banker at First National Bank in Limon, Colo., where he worked from 1981 to 2007 before becoming a full-time rancher. Over the decades he served on several community and bank boards, one being the Bankers' Bank of the West Bancorp, Inc. board of directors (1991 to 1994).

Mike earned a bachelor's degree in business at Texas Christian University in Fort Worth. After he and Brenda Ververs married in 1986, the couple made their home in Limon, where Mike was born and raised. His long track record of community service included four years on the Limon Town Council, a term as mayor of Limon, and membership in the Limon Rotary Club.

We at Bankers' Bank of the West are thankful to have called Mike a friend. We extend our deep sympathy to Mike's wife, Brenda, his children, and the many others who will miss him.

Sincerely,

Bill Mitchell, President
Bankers' Bank of the West
